News

This week saw our Easter Bingo event which was a huge success, raising £434 for our school fund! Thanks to everyone who supported on the night and donated Easter eggs and other prizes in the run-up.

Well done to our team of Year 5/6 girls who took part in the Fox-Parry Shield girls' football competition. They represented our school brilliantly and put 100% effort in on the day!

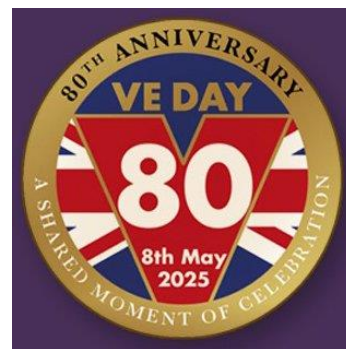

Dosbarth Poppies visited the John Summers Clocktower to take part in their Easter treasure trail. Dosbarth Daisies visited our local park as a Rainbow Challenge treat for their efforts this half term 😊

Upcoming Events

VE Day Celebrations

In the first few weeks of the new half term, we will be doing some learning about the upcoming VE Day 80th Anniversary celebrations. In the second week back, we will be celebrating with parent craft sessions on Thursday 8th May with tea and cakes - you are invited to join the session for your child's class:

Daisies, Tulips & Sunflowers (9:30-10:30am)

Daffodils & Poppies (1:30-2:30pm)

Pupils can come to school on this day wearing red, white and blue.

And finally...

Thanks to all those who came to this afternoon's Easter Performance - I'm sure you all agree this was a lovely way to end the Spring Term and start the Easter holidays!

Wishing you a wonderful and restful Easter break and I look forward to welcoming the children back to school on Monday 28th April.

Kind regards,

Mrs Wyn-Hughes
