Parents' Evening

We hope to see as many of you as possible to discuss your child's work and progress. Parents' Evening will be on the Tuesday 18th and Wednesday 19th February. All classes are trialling an online booking system, which will hopefully make booking an appointment much quicker. If you haven't booked an appointment yet or have any issues, please speak to the class teacher.

A request to parents:

Are any of our school reading books hiding in your house?

We are missing a huge number of reading books in school. They are very expensive to replace and we are sure that lots have gone home and not been returned. Please can you have a good look at home; on shelves and in bedrooms and return any books to school as soon as possible!

Travelling theatre production of The Jungle Book

We told you in the previous newsletter about our successful fundraising efforts in the lead up to Christmas.

We are excited to share that we have used some of this money to arrange a travelling theatre group to visit school later this term to perform The Jungle Book for all pupils. We think this will be a wonderful experience for the pupils.

Reminder:

After school clubs: All clubs will be on a Thursday this half term and run until 4pm.

	Club	Teacher	Year group
Thursday	Languages (French/Welsh)	Mrs Price Mr Ellis	Y3-6
	Board games	Mr Thornhill	Y3-6
	Lego	Mrs K Jones	R-Y2

Staff news:

Congratulations to Mrs Warrington, her husband and daughter who welcomed baby Elijah to their family last month. Lovely news!

♥ Dydd Santes Dwynwen! ♥

We have been celebrating Dydd Santes Dwynwen in our classes throughout the week.
Here are some pictures of our beautiful work and activities!

Kind regards,

Mrs Wyn Hughes
